Librarian

The Guild Library is a wonderful asset to the overall goals of the Guild. We, as a group, work diligently to preserve, perpetuate, and promote the art of quilting, and the books in the library offer a nearly inexhaustible source of means to reach our goals. With the remains of our budget in June, I was able to add to the bounty of books that already exist in the library. I purchased three new titles, and am planning future purchases with the current budget year. (I would love to hear suggestions for purchases, too!). Here are the titles of the books, a short description, and ways the books help support our Guild goals:

Lucky Spool's Essential Guide to Modern Quiltmaking is set out as a series of workshops with some of the top names in Modern Quilting such as Jacquie Gering, Denyse Schmidt, and Angela Walters. These teachers and their workshop chapters certainly highlight how progressive our craft is. This text encourages quilters to think about our beautifully honed skills in new ways, and it deftly leads us to learn new skills, too.

Perfect Quilts for Precut Fabrics: 64 Patterns for Fat Quarters, Charm Squares, Jelly Rolls, and Layer Cakes by The Patchwork Place is a lovely book if you are a precut fabric fan! These exciting patterns are sure to spark creative ideas beyond the patterns themselves, and precut fabrics are often great for beginners, allowing for a complete focus on sewing.

All Points Patchwork: English Paper Piecing Beyond the Hexagon for Quilts and Small Projects is just the book for hexie fans who are looking for the same fun with new shapes. The book features patterns and directions for diamonds, jewels, octagons, pentagons, triangles, tumblers, and curved shapes. The English Paper Piecing method preserves a lovely precise technique, and the use of the shapes beyond the hexagon allows us, as quilters, to explore boundless avenues for our art.

All three titles are exciting and inspiring! Come by the library to check out these new books and the rest of our library collection!! Happy reading and sewing!

President's Message

Dear Guild,

The guild year began with a lot of sharing of time, talent, and treasures by our members. The first meeting of the year included a showcase of quilts that were generously donated by members to the Heritage Day Quilt Auction. The range of sizes, colors, and techniques were definitely representative of the variety of quilting styles that our members practice. The proceeds from the auction will go directly into the guild's coffers, so all of us will benefit from these gifts.

Janice Pope's talk was entertaining and everyone loved seeing how her quilting progressed over the years. I was mightily encouraged to see that she is brave enough to still keep and share a major 'oops' project. I think that we have all created those items that we either bungled completely or just didn't much care for. I enjoy trying out new techniques and have little piles of blocks from these experiments. While I promptly chuck the failures, I never quite knew what to do with the others. Since I never intended these blocks to be a complete project they do not have a specific colorway or even a similar theme. I've heard many people suggest that I make a charity quilts out of them.

Charity quilts have been on mind a lot this month. I had the opportunity to stop in to visit with everyone who attended the charity workshop last month. It was delightful to see how many of our members were donating their time and talent to support the guild's charitable programs. The Cutting Bee had worked hard to make sure that there were a variety of kits for volunteers to choose from and the camaraderie amongst the people there was heartwarming. I enjoyed being able to put faces with names that I've heard announced in drawings or listed in the newsletter! After talking with many people about why they were participating in the workshop, I was truly inspired to pull out those orphaned blocks with plans to find them new homes. There are so many people to whom a quilt could bring comfort, and it seems such a waste to have used the fabric as a mere plaything with no thought as to its higher purpose.

Inspired by the multitude of techniques I saw at the July show, encouraged by Janice Pope's experiments, and inspired by the members at the charity workshop, I began digging through bags and bins in my sewing room. After a good, long session with the iron and some starch, I found that I had enough blocks for 6 tops. Thanks so much for the nudges in the right directions!

A hui hou kākou (Until we meet again),

Lanakila

Blast from the Past

From the CQG Newsletter, October 1981, editor, Jane Hall

The N.C. State Fair is coming up, beginning October 16, and the CQG has been invited to judge the quilts. They should be beautiful and exciting to see, as always. The showing of the quilts once the judging is over around 11:30 that morning. Come the to side entrance, off Blue Ridge Road, and tell the Guard that you have permission to come in for a pre-view.

Volunteer Opportunity at the Prison to teach quilting.

The weekly quilting class at the NC Correctional Institution for Women (NCCIW) in Raleigh is in need of volunteers once again. If you have basic hand sewing skills, patience with beginning stitchers and free time on Wednesdays from Noon- 3PM we really need you!

Requirements for volunteering: Basic hand sewing skills and a willingness to work with female prisoners on simple sewing and quilting projects—a nine patch pillow with buttons, and a lap size quilt. The kits for these projects are provided by Capital Quilters Guild. Volunteers must provide information for an official background check and must attend a new volunteer orientation class on Tuesday, August 25, 2015 from 6:00 to 9:00 PM.

History: Approximately 15 years ago, the sewing/quilting class was started by a member of Capital Quilters Guild. Up to 14 inmates can attend the class, which is held in the Mental Health unit at NCCIW. The ladies who come to class apply to be there and must meet behavioral standards to remain in the class. Some women are a part of the class for just a couple months and others have been there for years. Some of the volunteers come each week, some once or twice per month.

The guild is generous in providing fabric and notions for the class. Having more quilting expertise from guild members is essential to the women who attend the class. Currently I am the only CQG member who volunteers, and I need help! All other volunteers have come from local churches and by answering bulletin board notices at local quilt shops. I have been volunteering for almost two years, and I find it to be rewarding and a way to sew while giving back to the community at the same time. It is gratifying to help another person choose a kit, sew it together carefully and complete a project. They usually beam when they show their completed project to the group! Two prisoners have said to me that the class is the highlight of their week.

I wish that you could come visit the class to “see for yourself” what a pleasant environment we work in, and what good comradery there is among the inmates, the staff and the volunteers. But the way the system works we must go through volunteer training and security before going to class the first time. I’d be more than happy to talk with you about the class, answer your questions and put you in touch with other volunteers for their perspective if that would help convince you to try this program!

Volunteering at the prison doesn’t take any extraordinary sewing skill; however, it does take dedication to working with women who are paying the price of incarceration for a mistake or error in judgment in their past. In many ways, the women are just like anyone you would meet outside the prison walls. They are interesting and many enjoy the sewing or quilting. They are polite and friendly. Some are funny and entertaining. Others have great hand sewing skills and an eye for beautiful things. Above all, they are grateful for the assistance they get from the volunteers and they express that in many ways each week when the volunteers are there.

If you find it in your heart to consider this outreach program, please contact me as soon as possible. On behalf of the volunteers and the inmates, we look forward to meeting you!

If you would like to help out by donating to the cause, we need the following supplies:

Stuffing for pillows (Polyfil or any brand)
Buttons to embellish pillows (1” or larger, sets of 4)
Sewing thread—any color

Heritage Day

Ginny Nugent, vbnugent@yahoo.com

I think you will agree with me that the quilts shown at the meeting were terrific. Thank you so much for everything you have done and that you continue to do to make this event a big success!!

Our new total for the Live Quilt Auction is 70 quilts which include 7 vintage quilts. Awesome! The last day to donate a quilt will be at the August 20th meeting (if you would like to put a label on your quilt that would be great, but it isn't necessary).

We are halfway to our goal for pillowcases to put the auction quilts in. These pillowcases can be any size since we have many different sizes of quilts. So find some fabric that you don't want anymore and make some pillowcases (simple ones are fine). There will be a prize for the person giving me the ugliest pillowcase! On August 15th there will be sewing day dedicated to making pillowcases. Please let me know if you would like to attend. All are welcome!

We had our Viewer's Choice quilt show during our July meeting and the winners are:

- 1st Place - Anne Bowman – Celtic Solstice
- 2nd Place - Needlenuts Bee – In Memory of Patty Murphy
- 3rd Place - Honeycomb Bee – Bits and Pieces

The winners received a check and a basket for their hard work.

I thank the following stores for donating items for the baskets we gave to the winners:
Bernina World of Sewing,
Cary Quilting Company
My Sewing Shoppe
Thimble Pleasures
Wish Upon a Quilt!
You are the best!

If you have a quilt that you would like to donate, but it isn't finished, please contact one of the longarmers who have offered to quilt these donations at a discounted price:

Laura Suich lsuich@gmail.com 919-601-8188

Please consider volunteering at Heritage Day! There will be two lucky volunteers who will win a basket filled with goodies (1 ticket for each 2-hour period worked)!

Thank you again for all your support.

Dots and Dashes Fat Quarter Swap

In September we will have a fat quarter swap. Bring your polka dot or striped fat quarters and get something fun and different in return.

- ~ must be a fat quarter: 18" x 22"
- ~ quilt-shop quality 100% cotton
- ~ bring a dot; get a dot
- ~ bring a dash; get a dash
- ~ either prewashed or not
- ~ maximum of 4 fat quarters
- ~ safety pin your name on each fat quarter you bring (this will insure that you don't get your own fat quarter back)

Depending on the response to the swap, we may make this a regular, periodic Guild activity – maybe two or three times a year. So if you have any suggestions for future themes, please share them with us. There will be a suggestion box at the swap table.

Join the Fun! Sign Up for Secret Pals!

When you hear ooh's and ah's before a guild meeting, it is often a Secret Pal opening her gift. It is just as much fun shopping for gifts for your pal and trying to secretly drop them off at the Secret Pal table at the meetings.

If you are interested in joining Secret Pals, please fill out a questionnaire and return it to Nancy Adams (Secret Pal Chair) by the September meeting. You can obtain a copy of the questionnaire either on our Social Media pages, in this newsletter (next page), or you can pick up a copy at the Secret Pal table.

At the September meeting, each participant will draw the name of a secret pal and will send a quilt related gift to that person each month from October 2015 through June 2016.

Secret pals will be revealed in June 2016 at an end-of-the year party. We will also have some get-togethers during the year.

Please contact Nancy Adams at (919-349-2725 or 919-841-5647) or email (adamsg16@gmail.com) if you have any questions.

Holiday Blocks

From the Material Girls Bee

We hope all who attended the July meeting were inspired by the quilts created by Janice Pope, one of our guild's former Presidents. I'm sure all of us could relate to some of the experiences she discussed on her quilting journey. Now is the time to start thinking about block designs for the upcoming 2015 Holiday Blocks. Be Creative! Holiday blocks can be holiday themed or not. The budget for each group is $50 and up to 10 groups can participate. Forms to submit your design are available on our Social Media pages. Please submit your design along with a picture for approval to Ina Stringfellow, lldblnc@yahoo.com by October 1st. So get your quilting friends or bees together, design a block, go shopping and have your kits ready for the October meeting.

For new members: At the October meeting, you have the opportunity to purchase Holiday block kits for $2 each. Take it home, make the block, and return it at the December meeting. Winners will be drawn that night from each block design group, and the lucky winner takes home enough blocks to make a quilt! In June, we have a quilt show for all those winners who have completed their holiday block quilts, be it from the current year or previous years.

Bee Keeper

Hi Guild Members,

If anyone is interested in starting a "special" bee that concentrates on handwork, i.e. piecing, applique, and/or quilting let me know. If you are interested please contact me at barbara550@aol.com or phone me at 919-387-1158.

Cheers,

Charity and Community Outreach

What a fun time was had “Chillin” with Friends” at the July Charity Workshop. We started with 50 kits from the fabulous Cutting Bee and by mid-afternoon there were less than a dozen kits left. We can’t wait to see Show and Tell in August. Thanks to everyone who came to set-up, sew, kibitz, and clean up! Special kudos to Karin Mead for the chocolate!

Our next charity workshop isn’t scheduled until January 2016, but the cutting bee is happy to provide kits for a bee sew-in for Capital Quilters charities. Just let us know by emailing Roberta at rmillerharaway@gmail.com at least a month before your bee needs the kits. Speaking of the Cutting Bee, we can always use blenders and solids, so keep us in mind when you are doing stash reduction!

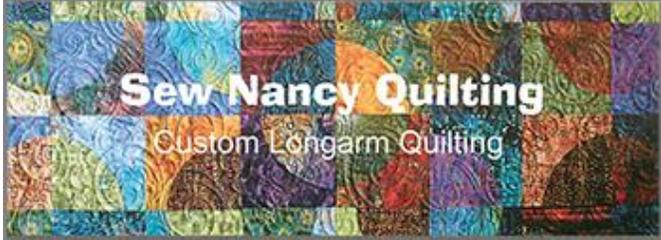

Are you sewing from your stash and wondering what sizes we need? Here’s a quick reference chart:

Quilts for Kids	Minimum size is 32" X 32"
Quilts on Wheels	Minimum 36" to a side; Maximum 45" to a side
SAFEChild	Minimum 40" on each side, Up to a twin size quilt

Happy sewing!

Secret Pals Revealed

The Secret Pals enjoyed a delicious dinner at Relish Restaurant on July 16 as the first part of the Revealing Party. Then at 6:30 they met in the Temple Beth Or meeting hall to give a special gift to their Secret Pals (the quilters who had been giving to them all year). A few had guessed who their pal was, but for most it was a surprise when their pal was revealed. Everyone was excited about the wonderful gifts that they received. The Pals gave Susan Hatch, the chairperson, an awesome goody bag, which Susan appreciated. New friends were made this year and we look forward to making more friends in 2015-2016.

We are off and running selling raffle tickets for our gorgeous guild quilt. We will have tickets available at guild meetings. You know...if everyone sold just $25 worth of tickets we would raise over $8,000!!! This year 100% of the proceeds of the raffle ticket sales will stay within the guild to support all of the guild's activities.

Our next opportunity to sell tickets outside of the guild will be Lazy Daze Arts & Crafts Festival in Cary at the end of August. You are welcome to sign up at the raffle table during the August meeting. These outside sales efforts also give us an opportunity to tell new folks about the guild and often we do some sort of demonstration.

Teachers and Workshops

We have a great line up of workshops for the 2015-2016 Guild Year. The cost for workshops for guild members is $50. In an effort to fill our workshops we will once again offer our workshops to the public. Our membership will still have first chance at signup. However, after a designated period, we will open registration to non guild members. Cost for non-members is $60. Don't miss your opportunity to take a class from a nationally recognized teacher at an exceptional price. Get your registration in early.

Our workshops are held at Highland United Methodist Church from 9 am—3:30 pm. You may register at the guild meeting or mail your registration form to Debby Femia.

OCTOBER WORKSHOPS w/ LINDA J. HAHN

www.froghollowdesigns.com

Friday, October 16
Buffalo Bubblegum-
New York Beauty Diversified

Students learn how to create perfect New York Beauty blocks using Linda's unique ONE PIN technique. Then students will incorporate those blocks into a dynamic setting that has NO set in seams!

Kit ($25) containing foundation paper which can be left in the quilt, laser cut paper piecing stencil and custom acrylic templates is required and payable to instructor.

Saturday, October 17
Juicy Lucy-Rock That Block
One Block-12 Different Ways

Learn how to divide a block into sections and calculate the size of the pieces using simple Quilter's Math. Then explore how merely changing a color or rotating a patch a quarter turn can change the dynamics of the block.

NOVEMBER WORKSHOPS w/ BONNIE HUNTER

www.quiltville.com

Friday, November 20
Roll, Roll Cotton Boll

Create a dynamic scrappy quilt, combining traditional blocks with the freedom of string piecing in the alternate blocks. Students will do SOME precutting, and the use of the Easy Angle Ruler will be demonstrated in class as well as basics of string piecing!

"String Fling!" book required

Saturday, November 21
Texas Tumbleweed

Spinning stars and ladder blocks abound in a motion-filled scrapp quilt made completely from 2.5" Squares and 2.5" X 4.5" rectangles! Students will come to class with fabric shapes pre-cut ahead of time, ready to sew, share and swap if desired. This is a stress-free fun class with lots of POW in the finished quilt!

"More Adventures With Leaders and Enters" book required

MARCH WORKSHOPS w/ ALLISON LEE

www.thego-goquilter.com

Friday, March 18

Quilt As You Go
Bias Tape Applique

APRIL WORKSHOPS w/ GUDRUN ERLA

www.gequiltedesigns.com

Friday, April 22
Stripology

Use the Stripology ruler and your own scraps to create the Strip Ribbons project and the Strip Stacks project from Gudrun's book "Stripology".

Saturday, April 23
Scandinavian Style

Spinning Explore two different Big-Block projects from Gudrun's book "Big Blocks, Big Style: Simple Quilts with a Scandinavian Flair.. Projects are stash friendly!
