President's Message

Great meeting, loved the speaker and her quilts were very inspiring. I am always interested in hearing about any aspect of quilting that I have not tried or even thought about.

One of the best parts of the meeting is the parade because I always get at least one idea from it. The problem with that is all the tops I have to quilt. I am going to believe that I am not the only one who gets excited about a design or pattern. Not sure if a finished top that is not quilted is considered a UFO. If it is I have about thirteen UFO's. That is embarrassing to admit.

The President's Challenge will be announced at the October meeting. Hopefully it will be a Challenge to all the awesome quilters in our Guild.

Alma Mellish
President

Membership

We are thrilled that we've gotten so many new members and renewals! Don't be left out! Join or renew by the October meeting to be included in the Membership Directory. The Members-only Facebook page will also be cleared of non-members by the end of October. If you haven't already, be sure to renew soon so you don't miss any of the excitement!

Comfort Quilt Sewing Bee

At the October Guild Meeting we will have a Comfort Quilt Sewing Bee. Please bring thread, needles and scissor so we can help finish bindings on quilts and anything Lois may have to complete. You can bring your own project also.

Thanks for your help!
Marie Grasso

Holiday Blocks

We will be selling Holiday Blocks at the October guild meeting. Eleven groups and/or individuals will be providing blocks for our guild members to choose. Check out our guild's Facebook page in the weeks prior to the meeting for pictures of the blocks. Kits will sell for $2 each and we kindly request you bring $1 bills since change will not be readily available.

Blocks will be available to preview beginning at 6:30 and sale of the blocks will take place at a designated time during the meeting. Only one block may be purchased initially. If there are any remaining blocks available, those may be purchased after all have had a chance to purchase their first block.

If you buy a kit, you must complete the block and turn it in at either the November or the December meeting. Representatives of the groups/individuals providing kits will have someone available to collect the completed blocks at each meeting. Winners will be drawn from those who turn in their completed blocks at the December meeting. If a member is unable to complete their block, please return the unfinished block so it can be given to that block's winner.

Thank you for participating in Holiday Blocks! If you have any questions, please contact either Ina Stringfellow at 919 604-8300 or Cathy Erickson at 336 260-9093.

WORKSHOPS & TEACHERS

Report from Cindy Grisdela Workshops -September 20-21, 2019

Connie Upshaw-Workshop Chair

I decided to try something different this year by having a Meet & Greet at dinner on Thursday night before the lecture, for those who had signed up for the workshops. We had 20 students who were able to come early to meet Cindy and have dinner at Chopstix! Cindy enjoyed it very much and I think it was a good way to meet her and answer last minute questions before the lecture & workshops! I do think the workshop students enjoyed meeting each other, too! We will definitely do it again!

We had a great turnout for Cindy's workshops! There were 14 students signed up for her Friday, Fire and Ice Bargello and 22 students signed up for her Saturday, Improv Puzzle Blocks class! It was a fun group of members, non-members and new guild members!

Please go to Cindy's website and blog, www.cindygrisdela.com, or Cindy's Facebook page, Cindy Grisdela Art Quilts, to see pictures and what she posted about teaching at Capital Quilters Guild in Raleigh! I also posted pictures on our Facebook page.

Sign up for the next workshops will not begin until December. So watch for the December newsletter! It's going to be fun! Thank you and happy sewing! Hope to see some finished pieces from class at a future show & tell!

Thanks to all who brought quilts to the last meeting!

For those of you who took home feedsacks, enjoy making quilts with them! We have many many kits waiting to be turned into quilts; please be sure to pick up one or more at our October meeting.

Also, we will be stitching down bindings and sewing on labels at the October meeting. Have a quilt at home waiting to be bound? Bring it with you! Bring your needle and thread; and we will have a fun evening of stitching and socializing with quilting friends around the tables!

We have opportunities to share our love of quilting with our community in the coming months:

Saturday, October 5th -- CQG will have a table at Farm Fest (formerly Heritage Day) at the Historic Oak View Park to demonstrate how to make a quilt block. Contact Ginny Nugent if you are interested in helping! {See next page for more information.}

Saturday, October 13th -- We will be at the NC Museum of History from 1-3 pm demonstrating hand quilting on a frame on one of the museum's quilts. Please let me (Lois) know if you can help with this event.

Thursday, January 16th -- We will again be demonstrating hand quilting at the NC Museum of History from 11 am til 2 pm. This will be mostly for school groups. Again, please let me know if you are interested in helping with this event.

Please let me know if you are interested in helping with any of these events!

Historic Oak View County Park - Farm Fest

We are going to have a table at Farm Fest on Saturday, October 5th from 10-4 where we will demonstrate how to make the Perkiomen or Perkiomen Valley Block, illustrated below.

If you would like to help for a few hours, please contact me and let me know what time you can help

Information about Farm Fest - Take a step back in time and celebrate Farm Life at Oak View! Previously known as Heritage Day, Oak View Farm Fest features farm animals, antique farm equipment, historic crafts, live music, horse-drawn carriage rides, and cane pole fishing. -

Capital Quilters Guild 2020 Quilt Show

March 20-21, 2020
NC State Fairgrounds, Raleigh

Raffle Quilt

Thank you all who have sold raffle tickets for our beautiful Hearts in Flight quilt! Sue Hatch has the reigning title of Queen, but the rest of us can catch up. Have you bought tickets as stocking stuffers for your loved ones? Or stuffed them into birthday cards? Do your neighbors and friends know how much CQG means to you and the wonderful gifts of quilts that go into our community? All and more reasons to give others the opportunity to join in our mission to promote the art and love of quilts.

November guild meeting brings the Holiday Bazaar, organized so well by Cherie Brugler. I hope you have thought about the gifts you can make and see this as a time to get some holiday shopping completed. Contact Cherie, please, if you need some ideas about what to make and bring.

Plans are in progress for our next raffle quilt. It will be a bit more scrappy and use some of the fabrics donated to the guild. It will be ready in Spring 2020, after our quilt show in March. These fundraising events are vital to the financial health of our guild, as our dues only cover a portion of our expenses. Please help as you can so that the Board can keep dues manageable. And please contact me if you need raffle tickets or have questions. Thank you.

Entry Rules

Rules and Categories for Quilts – Registration for quilt submission will begin on December 2nd.

1. There is no fee for members of CQG to enter a quilt. CQG members may enter no more than 2 quilts in any one category. Non-members must pay a $10 fee to enter any quilts. For that fee non-members may enter a total of 3 quilts with no more than 1 quilt in any one category.
2. Quilt to be judged must have been completed after 2015 and cannot have been previously entered in any CQG sponsored shows (specifically the 2016 Symposium or the 2018 quilt show).
3. In all categories the entrant must have worked on some part of the quilt. Except for duet and group categories, the quilts must be the sole work of the entrant.
4. All quilt entries must have three layers joined by quilting. No false backs permitted; all quilting must be visible from the back of the quilt.
5. Each quilt must have its own entry form with picture. Entry forms will be accepted starting 12/2/19 and must be received no later than midnight 1/16/20
6. The earliest date for turning in quilts will be the 2/20/20 guild meeting and all quilts must be received by 3/9/20.
7. All entries must have a 4-inch sleeve attached to the top of the quilt. For large quilts the sleeve should be a maximum of 80" from the bottom of the quilt so that any excess length drapes over the top of the hanging frame.
8. All entries must have a label sewn on the back lower right-hand corner of the quilt (as you look at the quilt from the back). The label must include the quilt name, the quilt maker's name and date completed.
9. All quilts must be able to be hung using standard hanging procedures. Do not send hanging rods or any kind of hardware or special hanging instructions. Framed quilts will not be accepted in this show.
10. Upon receipt of the quilt show entry form/s, a notification of entry will be emailed to entrant for each entry. After 1/1/20 a quilt show entry number will be emailed for each entry. The participant must use the entry number and create a muslin label which should be securely affixed to the back lower right-hand corner of your quilt to cover the entire quilt label.
11. Do not send any accompanying material as it cannot be displayed.
12. Each quilt must be folded into a clear plastic bag. Please fold your quilt so that the quilt label can be viewed through the plastic bag.
13. While we endeavor to take the utmost care of your quilts, our committee will not be held responsible for any damage that may occur. Quilts entered with embellishments must be capable of withstanding normal folding and stacking without risking harm to the quilt or another. It is your responsibility to have adequate insurance coverage for your quilt.
14. Quilt Show committee reserves the right to refuse a quilt if it is soiled, has pet hair or if it smells of smoke, perfume or pet odors. Quilts will be inspected upon receipt, and the owner will be contacted if the quilt is refused.
15. All quilts MUST be picked up between 6:00 P.M. and 7:00 P.M. at the end of the show. You are required to bring the paperwork showing ownership. If someone else is picking up your quilt, they must have the paperwork.
16. The committee reserves the right to reassign quilts to another category if they are entered incorrectly. Entrants will be contacted if this puts their entries over the category limit to decide which quilt will be withdrawn.
