A Quilting Friend!

Happy New Year!

Hope everyone had a great Holiday.

With the New Year here this is a good time to start or finish those quilts you want to do for the quilt show. I am not worried that we will have enough quilts, as I have faith this guild as always, comes through for everything that we do.

Just a reminder that the Silent Auction will be held at the January meeting. Bring in all those things that you bought because it looked good and now have no idea why you got it. I have fabric that was donated to the guild that I am bringing. This is a good time to clean out your stash to make room for all the new stuff coming out in the New Year. Remember someone's stash is someone's treasure. We will take cash, checks or credit cards.

I know that a lot of people make New Year resolutions and I am just as bad. I make them and do really well the first month or two and then it falls by the side. Last year was to finish UFO's. Well I did good. I finished a lot of tops that I had started (not all but a lot) but never got them quilted. Guess that doesn't count as done. Oh well New Year, new resolution. This year I am going to quilt all these quilts that are sitting next to my machine waiting to be done, the ones that I finished the tops last year.

Your President,
Alma Mellish

Our February classes are going to be fun! Please do consider taking one of these classes and learn some new quilting skills! The Friday class is a design and free motion quilting class and the Saturday class is free motion quilting, both classes on your domestic machine.

Coloring Book Quilting: Playing with stitching, designing, and coloring! SEWING & DESIGN WORKSHOP
All skill levels welcome!

Join Pat as we play with quilt designs, coloring book pages and colored pencils. The latest craze in relaxation is coloring and we'll take quilt-making to the next step by adding color with pencils to our art quilts. Choose your motif and fill with quilted designs to color. Watercolor pencils blend with water to create more colors and effects. Some free motion quilting experience would be helpful.

You will get a complete kit including design, fill motifs, colored pencils, sealing medium, batting, and fabrics for the top, backing and practice. This class will give you lots of ideas for quilting designs and a whole new look for your quilts.

Saturday, February 22, 2020- "Fills, Feathers & Fancies"
No extra class fee, but there is a supply list and quilt sandwiches to prepare ahead of time.
All skill levels welcome!

Fills, Feathers, and Fancies: Expanding your quilting vocabulary. SEWING WORKSHOP

Tired of the same old stippling? Perk up your machine quilting with a new vocabulary of designs for filling spaces and backgrounds. Heirloom quilting is done with little or no marking. You will end up with a portfolio of stitches to get your creativity flowing.

Thursday, February 20, 2020 Guild meeting lecture: "Under the Bedclothes" Slide lecture with show & tell

Pat welcomes both beginners and advanced quilters to both of these classes. Friday's class is design and free motion quilting, while Saturday's class is all free motion.**

Block Party

You all persevered through rain and cold to build with our Bricks and Mortar blocks for November. Donna Turnage and Anne Bowman won the blocks.

December's block is the Pine Tree. Use your green scraps to complete it.

Coffee Cup blocks are coming in January as we continue our theme of Things in the Home. I remember when I was little, my mother would get together with another stay at home mother of which there were many and have coffee in the afternoons while we kids played. This block is in remembrance of those times!

YOUR LIBRARY

1) The library has acquired several new books over the last few months. This month we acquired (1) Pot Holders for All Seasons by Chris Malone, and (2) 12 Pack Quilts Book by Barbara Groves and Mary Jacobson. Last month we acquired (3) The Big Book of Lap Quilts, (4) On a Roll by Moda All-Stars, (5) Modern Memory Quilts by Suzanne Paquette, and (6) Lucky Charm Quilts by Moda All-Stars. If you'd like to reserve any of these, send me an email and I will set it aside for you. (If you can't find my email ID on the version of the newsletter that you are reading, just send it to information@capitalquilters.org and they will route it.) Remember, we are always happy for purchase suggestions.

2) The library distributed over 650 free quilting magazines to Guild members in 2019. Our remaining magazine collection is now very low. If you have any magazines that you have already read or that are lying around your sewing room, please consider bringing them in and donating them to the library.

3) We continue to have our "FREE ITEMS" box out on the library table every meeting with items that Guild members would like to give away. Please bring any craft supplies, quilting patterns, notions, or anything else you have had sitting in your basement for a few years to the next meeting. Another Guild member will find them interesting and put them to use. (And the UFO bee will take any partially completed quilts/blocks.)
